

Video Title: UofGH Quick Take – Home for Dinner

Date: February 2, 2018

Running Time: 0:54

Time	Content
00:00 – 00:05	[University of Guelph-Humber Quick Take]
00:05 – 00:15	[Shot of the Ronald McDonald House in Toronto with the text “On January 17 th , 2018 students from the Early Childhood Studies program at the University of Guelph-Humber cooked dinner for families in need as part of the Ronald McDonald House “Home For Dinner” Initiative.”
00:15 – 00:26	[Shot of the students cooking the meals] “Ronald McDonald House is a home away from home for children and families who are being treated at the Hospital for Sick Children. And this is a great opportunity for our students...”
00:26 – 00:32	[Interview with Elena Merenda, Assistant Program Head for Early Childhood Studies] “...because in our program we offer them experiences with therapeutic play which is unique to our Early Childhood Studies...”
00:32 – 00:50	[Shot of the students cooking the meals] “...program. So if a child is having difficulty understanding their diagnosis or their disability we can use play to help them understand. So coming here really gives students, even though they're not playing with the children they're cooking and eating with them, the conversations that they're having really gives students an idea of what the therapeutic needs are here and how they could help...”
00:50 – 00:54	[Interview with Elena Merenda, Assistant Program Head for Early Childhood Studies] “...as a professional”