

Frequently Asked Questions

What courses do I need to complete in order to graduate?

You must complete 20 credits (40 courses), including the following

- 15.0 credits (30 courses) – Core Courses
- 3.0 credits (6 courses) – Area of Emphasis courses
- 2.0 credits (4 courses) General Electives
- 3 Non Credit Practicum Courses for Police Foundation Students only

Students are required to choose their area of emphasis after their first year of studies. Each course in the Justice Studies program has a credit value of 0.5, unless otherwise noted.

What General Electives should I take?

Choose electives that interest you. Electives offered in the fall will differ from electives offered in the winter semester. A schedule will be available before course selection entitled 'Electives'. If you are interested in applying to post-graduate program(s) after graduation, you may wish to tailor your electives to meet the admission requirements of various programs.

Can I take a Justice Studies course as an elective?

No. General Electives are designed to give students depth and breadth in their studies and provide an opportunity for Justice Studies students to take courses with University of Guelph-Humber students in other programs.

Am I required to take my electives at Guelph-Humber?

Letters of Permission may be available in order for you to take general electives at another institution. For more information, please review the following webpage: <https://www.guelphhumber.ca/advising/lop>

Is there workplace experience integrated in the Justice Studies Program?

Yes. Students will complete community service placements in second and third year. Both placements total 200 hours (100 hours each placement). Justice Studies students will develop sensitivity to contemporary social issues ranging from abuse and violence to welfare. Throughout their placements, students participate in weekly seminars to critically analyze their volunteer experiences.

I am a transfer student. How do I know which courses to select?

Transfer Students who received blocked credit should review the Justice Studies Transfer Program Plan. If you are a General Transfer student, you should use this document in collaboration with their Official Transfer Credit Assessment to determine which courses they have been granted and which courses they need to register for. Transfer students should meet with their Academic Advisor to confirm the schedule they have developed in advance of the course selection dates.
