

Finding Humber eBooks: Discover

Humber College library provides access to nearly 50,000 ebooks. This guide shows you how to find and access ebooks online through the Humber library catalogue, Discover.

1. On the UofGH Library homepage, select the Search Humber Library tab. Enter your search keywords and click Search.

2. Limit your search results to ebooks. Select Items with full text online under Refine your search. Select Book/eBook under Content Type. Click the Full Text Online link that appears under the catalogue record.

Finding Humber eBooks: Discover

3. You need to login for off campus access. Enter the library barcode number on your student card, beginning with “21188...”. Your PIN is the first 10 letters of your last name, all lowercase.

REMOTE Access

Library eResources are restricted to current faculty, students and staff and are licensed for academic or teaching purposes only. Content from these products cannot be used for internship projects or for commercial purposes.

Please Login

Library Barcode Number: 21188...

Library PIN:

Sign In

Note: Students must have their library card activated in the Humber library system in order to access online resources. To activate your library card, visit the Humber library circulation desk to have your barcode scanned.

Different ebook platforms have different layouts and navigation features. Use the help menu in the ebook platform to learn about features including printing, downloading and annotating your ebook.