

Are you ready to graduate?

Presented by Academic Advising

Let's find out!

First: Check your 'My Progress'

(via Student Planning within WebAdvisor)

What My Progress Tells You

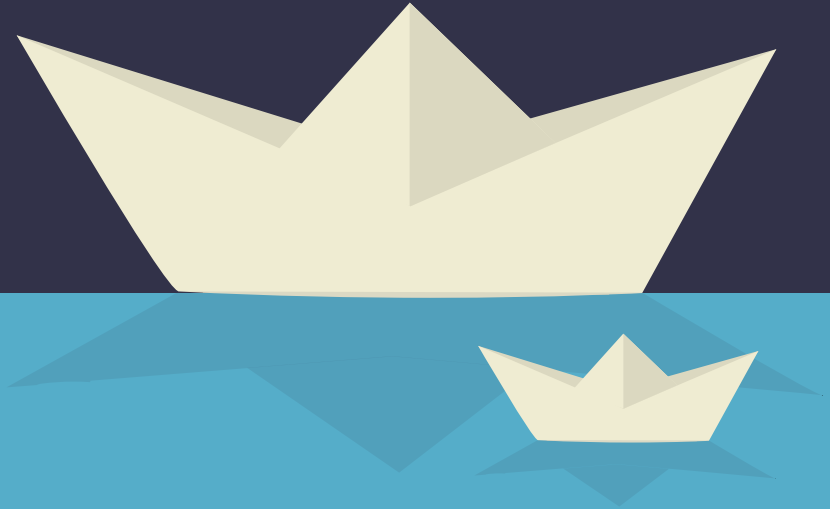

- The courses you have completed and their corresponding grades
- The courses you still need to complete
- The courses you have Planned
- Any transfer credits you may have received or Letter of Permission (LOP) courses you may have completed

Why do I need to review My Progress?

- To determine what courses you've completed to date and see what courses you need to take in order to graduate
- If you are missing courses, meet with your Academic Advisor to help plan your next steps

The image shows a screenshot of the University of Guelph-Humber WebAdvisor interface. The interface is set against a blue background with stylized clouds and a red ladder on the left. On the right, two cartoon figures are climbing a yellow ladder towards a red arrow pointing right. The WebAdvisor interface itself has a dark grey sidebar on the left with icons for menu, home, announcements, documents, graduation, and user profile. The main content area has a red header with the University of Guelph-Humber logo. Below the header, there's a grey bar with 'Sign out' and 'Help' links. A blue notification box contains a message about course selection availability and WebAdvisor refresh tips. Below this, a 'Welcome to WebAdvisor!' section prompts the user to choose a category. Six category tiles are displayed: Account View, Tax Information, Student Planning (highlighted with a blue border), Course Catalog, Grades, and News and Resources. The footer contains contact information for the University of Guelph, University of Guelph-Humber, and University of Guelph Ridgetown Campus, along with accessibility and status page links.

How to find your Schedule of Studies

An illustration with a blue background and stylized clouds. In the center is a large dark blue rectangle containing the title. To the left is a tall red ladder and a shorter white ladder. To the right, two people in business suits are on a white ladder; one is reaching for a red flag on a pole at the top. The scene is metaphorical, representing the process of finding a schedule of studies.

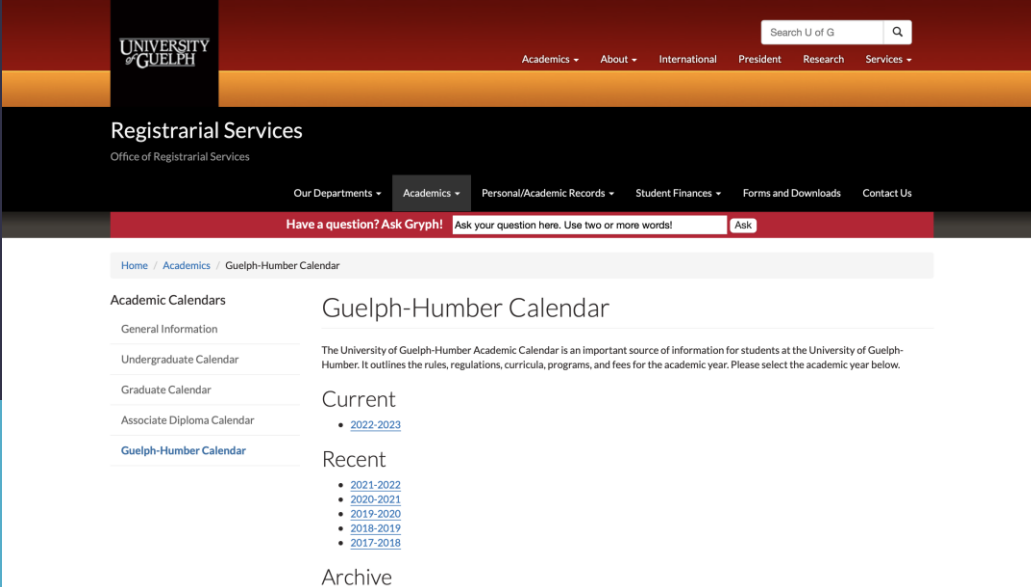

Step One

Go to guelphhumber.ca, click QuickLinks, then click Academic Calendar

Step Two

Select your Admission year (the year you started your program)

The screenshot shows the University of Guelph Registrarial Services website. The header features the University of Guelph logo and a search bar. The main navigation bar includes links for Academics, About, International, President, Research, and Services. Below this, the Registrarial Services section is highlighted, with a sub-navigation bar for Our Departments, Academics, Personal/Academic Records, Student Finances, Forms and Downloads, and Contact Us. A red banner prompts users to ask questions. The breadcrumb trail shows the path: Home / Academics / Guelph-Humber Calendar. On the left, a sidebar lists Academic Calendars: General Information, Undergraduate Calendar, Graduate Calendar, Associate Diploma Calendar, and Guelph-Humber Calendar (selected). The main content area is titled 'Guelph-Humber Calendar' and includes a description of the calendar's purpose. It features a 'Current' section with a link for 2022-2023, a 'Recent' section with links for 2021-2022, 2020-2021, 2019-2020, 2018-2019, and 2017-2018, and an 'Archive' section.
