

Resources for Researching Further Education Options

This list is designed to help you begin your research on graduate and professional school options:

Ontario University Application Centre www.ouac.on.ca	Provides application information for professional programs in Ontario, specifically: Teacher's College, Rehabilitation Science programs (Physiotherapy, occupational therapy, audiology and speech language pathology), medical school, and law school.
http://cou.on.ca/links/resources-for-students/compare-information-about-universities/links-to-ontario-universities	Links to individual Ontario University websites. Each website provides information on specific programs offered at their university, as well as application requirements and how to apply.
http://www.aucc.ca/canadian-universities/	List of Canadian universities. Can search programs by degree, undergraduate, graduate, co-op program, etc.
Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities http://www.tcu.gov.on.ca/eng/	Links to college and university websites. Good for students interested in post graduate diplomas/certificates.
Career Cruising www.careercruising.com	Username: Humber Password: careers Can search grad schools in Canada by province or program of study
www.schoolfinder.com www.gradschoolfinder.com http://www.graduateguide.com/?gclid=CPuolZqnj7oCFZAMgod3msAUg http://www.petersons.com/graduate-schools/	Provides students with information on schools in Canada and international schools based on program type www.gradschools.com http://www.princetonreview.com/	Provides information on things to keep in mind when deciding whether graduate school is a good option, as well as things to keep in mind when choosing particular programs at the graduate level.

For more information on the application process, or to speak to someone about career decision making and whether graduate school is a good option for you, make an appointment with your Career & Placement Coordinator by calling 416-798-1331 ext. 6288 or emailing career@guelphhumber.ca.