UNIVERSITY OF GUELPH
HUMBER

Online part-time program for career advancement and further studies

The Justice and Public Safety program at the University of Guelph-Humber is specifically designed to meet your needs as a working (public or private) professional. Students in this program are police officers, paramedics, fire fighters, and other frontline public safety workers, and range from relatively new employees to managers, command staff and senior executives.

Upgrade your credentials.

Use your previous postsecondary education and work experience in the field of justice or public safety for credit towards your degree. Earn a Bachelor of Applied Arts from the University of Guelph for growth and career advancement in a variety of sectors and/or pursue further education.

Learn with the best.

You benefit from the experience of highly trained educators who currently work or formerly worked in the field, as well as a full range of student support services available remotely/virtually.

Expand your professional skills.

Our program builds critical thinking, and a research- and evidence-based academic foundation to complement and expand your experience. We'll give you the tools to do your job better! Become a lifelong learner and form new networks and associations with diverse organizations and agencies.

Complete your degree part-time.

Continue your education while maintaining a good work-life balance. All courses are 100% online; no travel to class. Complete your degree in two or two and a half years! Start fall 2021.

About the University of Guelph-Humber

The University of Guelph-Humber is a collaboration between the University of Guelph and Humber College Institute of Technology & Advanced Learning (Humber).

Your Bachelor of Applied Arts degree will be granted by the University of Guelph.

“ At almost age 50, and 30 years into my policing career, completing my BAA was not really on my bucket list, but I knew it would be instrumental to my leadership success. The UofGH program offered me a flexible but structured adult learning environment that made reaching this goal a reality. ”
